THE HOME DEPOT ANNOUNCES SECOND QUARTER RESULTS

Aug 14, 2007

ATLANTA, Aug 14, 2007 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ --

The Home Depot(R), the world's largest home improvement retailer, today reported fiscal 2007 second quarter consolidated net earnings of $1.6 billion, or $0.81 per diluted share, compared with $1.9 billion, or $0.90 per diluted share, in the same period in fiscal 2006.

Earnings from continuing operations in the fiscal 2007 second quarter were $1.5 billion, or $0.77 per diluted share, compared to fiscal 2006 second quarter earnings from continuing operations of $1.7 billion, or $0.82 per diluted share. The Company is now reflecting the results of HD Supply as a discontinued operation. Earnings from discontinued operations were $66 million, or $0.03 per diluted share, compared to $161 million, or $0.08 cents per diluted share, in the second quarter of fiscal 2006. Included in earnings from discontinued operations is a discrete tax charge of approximately $60 million related to the disposition of HD Supply. Excluding this discrete charge, adjusted earnings from discontinued operations were approximately $126 million.

Sales for the second quarter totaled $22.2 billion, a 1.8 percent decrease from the second quarter of fiscal 2006, reflecting negative comparable store sales of 5.2 percent, offset in part by sales from new stores.

"While the challenging housing market continues to present us with a tough selling environment, our financial performance was in line with our expectations," said Frank Blake, chairman & CEO. "I want to thank our associates and our vendor partners for their hard work and the progress they continue to make in executing against our key priorities."

"We believe the housing and home improvement markets will remain soft into 2008; we will continue to invest thoughtfully for the long-term health of the business," said Blake.

Fiscal Year 2007 Financial Outlook

The Company reiterated in its earnings outlook that it expects its earnings per share from continuing operations to decline by 12-15 percent for fiscal 2007. Consolidated earnings per share are expected to decline by 15-18 percent for fiscal 2007.

The fiscal 2007 earnings per share outlook reflects 52 weeks and does not include the impact of the 53rd week. The Company will have 53 weeks of operating results in its fiscal 2007 financial results. The Company projects that the 53rd week will add approximately three cents to its earnings per share outlook for fiscal 2007. Additionally, the Company's earnings per share outlook does not include any impact of the sale of HD Supply or any earnings per share accretion arising from the Company's announced $22.5 billion recapitalization plan.

Pending Sale of HD Supply

On August 9, 2007, The Home Depot announced that it was in discussions with affiliates of Bain Capital Partners, The Carlyle Group and Clayton, Dubilier & Rice for the purpose of restructuring the previously announced agreement for the sale of HD Supply. These discussions could result, among other things, in material changes to the terms and financing of the transaction, including a reduction in the $10.325 billion purchase price.

The tender offer is part of the Company's overall $22.5 billion recapitalization strategy which contemplates a sale of HD Supply for approximately $10.3 billion. As previously announced, the Company is in discussions with respect to the restructuring of the sale of HD Supply and is carefully watching today's turbulent financial markets. The Company will continue to assess financial market conditions and the impact of any restructured HD Supply transaction, or failure to complete that transaction, on its overall recapitalization plan and on the terms of the tender offer part of that plan.

The Home Depot will conduct a conference call today at 9 a.m. ET to discuss information included in this news release and related matters. The conference call will be available in its entirety through a webcast and replay at homedepot.com in the Investor Relations section.

At the end of the second quarter, the Company operated a total of 2,200 retail stores, which included 1,923 The Home Depot stores in the United States (including the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the territory of the U.S. Virgin Islands), 157 stores in Canada, 63 stores in Mexico, and 12 stores in China. The Company also operates 34 EXPO Design Center(R) locations, and 11 The Home Depot Landscape Supply(R) stores. The Company employs approximately 364,000 associates. The Home Depot's stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE: HD) and is included in the Dow Jones industrial average and Standard & Poor's 500 index. HDE

To provide clarity, internally and externally, about the operating performance of HD Supply in the most recent fiscal quarter, the Company supplemented the reporting of earnings for discontinued operations with a non- GAAP measure, adjusted earnings for discontinued operations. This supplemental information should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the GAAP measure of earnings for discontinued operations. The Company believes that this non-GAAP measure provides management and investors with meaningful information that assists in clearly understanding and analyzing HD Supply's earnings in the most recent fiscal quarter.
